Chuck Shields joined Beacon Commercial Real Estate in July 1998. His career, which began in 1973, comprises a number of disciplines, including his positions as Director of Industrial and Office Marketing for a national developer in South Jersey and as Marketing Consultant for an economic development authority in Pennsylvania. The majority of his career has been in brokerage, specializing in the industrial and office sector. In addition, Chuck has been concentrating his brokerage efforts in the self-storage industry.

Shields brings a detailed orientation to an assignment, as well as a persistent approach to the intended goal. His enthusiasm, commitment, and ethical values have enabled him to be successful in getting the job done.
